

GOODE IS TAKEN TO NEWPORT NEWS

Negro Arrested in Petersburg.
Charged With Brutal Assault.

MEETING OF CIVIC LEAGUE

Death of Former Legislator.
Thieves Attempt to Rob Safe.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Hollingsbrook Street, Petersburg, Va., January 23.
James Goode, alias "Joe Jones," the negro arrested in this city on Tuesday, charged with the brutal assault on Julius Smith, a Newport News merchant, and robbing him of $80, was taken back to Newport News this morning by an officer from that city. Of the $80 money $50 was recovered here, and it is said the evidence against the negro is so strong that there is no doubt of his conviction. The merchant is still alive but unconscious, and there is little hope of his recovery.

Civic League Meets.
The Civic League, of which Mrs. J.
W. Hays is president, met yesterday and discussed matters of interest.
The league has done much in its efforts to beautify and keep the city clean and in aiding in the improvement of general sanitary conditions. The matter of fumigating vehicles used in funerals was brought up, and a committee for investigation and report as well as that of lack of ventilation in the Richmond and Petersburg trolley cars at the end of their runs. The league favors the passage of an ordinance preventing chickens from running at large. A resolution was adopted requesting the Mayor to proclaim an early day as a general "clean-up" day, in order to check propagation of flies, which have been kept alive by the mild winter weather. A paper was read from Dr. R. A. Martin, health officer, relative to the improved health and sanitary conditions of the city, and noting some additions needed of the health department, in securing which it is hoped to receive the aid of the league.
A request for the organization of a branch league in the western part of the city was received.

ECZEMA ITCHED AND BURNED

Between Knee and Ankle. Scratching Made Solid Sores. Could Not Wear Shoes or Walk. One Box of Cuticura Soap and One Box of Cuticura Ointment Cured.

Curryville, Ga.—"My mother had a breaking out on her right leg between the knee and ankle which was pronounced eczema.
The sores broke out in pimples and flesh and burned so she scratched it and made a solid sore. It burned and itched so she could hardly sleep at night. Her clothing irritated it and her feet and ankles were swollen so she could not wear her shoes and could not walk for sometime.
"She tried several home remedies which did her no good. As a last resort she tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. She washed the places with the Cuticura Soap and afterwards applied the Cuticura Ointment. One box of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment cured her." (Signed) Mrs.
D. Walraves, Apr. 26, 1912.

FOR PIMPLES AND BLACKHEADS

The following is a most effective and economical treatment: Gently smear the affected parts with Cuticura Ointment, on the end of the finger, but do not rub. Wash off the Cuticura Ointment in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water and continue bathing for some time. At other times use Cuticura Soap freely for the body and bath, to assist in preventing inflammation, irritation and clogging of the pores. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Send ten-cent stamp for Skin Book. This treatment is the best for the face. Use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

Albert Waile, on Pearl Street. He was twenty-nine years old, was a member of the board of stewards of West Street M. E. Church, and of Virginia Council, Jr. O. U. A. M. Besides his parents he is survived by four brothers and five sisters.

Death of Former Legislator.

Robert R. Ramey died this afternoon at his residence on West Street.
In the seventy-sixth year of his age, he was a native of Prince George, and at one time represented that county in the lower house of the General Assembly. He moved to Petersburg some years ago and engaged in mercantile business. He was a good man, a consistent Christian, and was universally esteemed. He was a Confederate veteran, and was a member of A. P. Hill Camp. He was twice married, his wife surviving him, with the following children: John R.
Ramey, of Richmond; Ira W. and Tucker, of Petersburg; Mrs. Nannie Livesey, of Kingsburg, and Mrs.
L. M. Applewhite, of this city.

A Question of Sanity.

John Mason, the negro who last month shot and killed a colored woman named Gertie Smith, at her home in Sussex County, because of a supposed grudge, and who, after the crime, walked to Petersburg, confessed and surrendered to the police, is thought to be insane. He was convicted of murder in the first degree in the Circuit Court of Sussex last week, but sentence was deferred that a commission examine and determine whether or not he is insane. He is confined in Sussex jail.

Attempted Safe Robbery.

A thief or thieves last night broke into the drug store of Dr. R. E. Benton, a colored physician, on Halifax Street, and attempted to get into the safe. Failing in this they helped themselves to cigars, tobacco and chewing gum. Adjoining the drug store is the store and dwelling of Max Levenson.
They robbed the refrigerator in the back part of this house of several dozen eggs.

General News Notes.

Patrick Joseph Mansfield, a stranger, of several alleged professions, was sentenced to serve a term of sixty days in jail in the police justice this morning for stealing an overcoat from the office of Dr. Moylan Field.

The city is making an experiment of had reached the age of seventy-five years.

JEWISH COUNCIL CLOSES

Plans Made to Raise $1,000,000 Endowment for College.

Cincinnati, O., January 23.—The Twenty-third Biennial Council of American Hebrew Congregation came to a close here to-day with the election off an executive committee consisting of thirty members. The place of the next meeting in 1915 was left to this committee, and will be decided upon later.

The new executive committee organized shortly after the session of the council by electing J. Walter Friberg, of Cincinnati, president; Charles Shohl, of Cincinnati, vice-president; and Solomon Fox, of Cincinnati, treasurer. A resolution was adopted by the council to appoint 10,000 representatives throughout the country who will endeavor to get 10,000 men to donate $1,000 each. This total of $1,000,000 will become an endowment fund, the interest from which will be used to maintain the Hebrew Union College of this city.

It was agreed to abolish the stipend system at the college and substitute a scholarship system.

CREMATED FOR REVENGE

Mountaineers Believed to Have Caused Dr. Morrison's Death.
Somerville, N. J., January 23.—Investigation has been made of the case of Dr. John Morrison, a New York physician, who was burned to death in a fire which destroyed his summer home at the foot of the Sourland Mountain, near here, yesterday.

Recently Dr. Morrison's house was robbed and two mountaineers were imprisoned in the Somerset county jail for a time on suspicion.

MORE INDICTMENTS.

District Attorney's Office Is Hard After "Arson Trust."

New York, January 23.—Six more indictments were returned to-day by the grand jury. Two of them are directed against George Ortiz, a fire insurance adjuster, now in the Tombs, and Kalman Newman, an attorney, who is at liberty on bail.
Both men had been indicted previously on charges of arson. At the district attorney's office it was said the other indictments were returned against three owners of flat houses, and the owners of a tailor shop where fires occurred.

Bacon's Daughter Dies.

Macon, Ga., January 23.—After her life had been prolonged two days by transfusion of blood operations, Mrs.
Marilyn B. Curry, daughter of Senator A. C. Bacon, died last night. Senator Bacon and Mrs. Curry's daughter, Miss Shirley Curry, came here from Washington, and were at the bedside.

Mansley B. Curry was a Richmond man, son of the late Dr. J. P. Curry.
He was married to a daughter of the late James Thomas, of this city.

RICHMOND MAN GETS HIGH PRAISE

Dr. W. B. Foster, Formerly of City Health Department, Making Good in Roanoke.

Dr. W. Brownley Foster, formerly medical inspector attached to the Richmond Health Department, and now chief of the Roanoke Department of Health, according to reports from that city, is doing his share to make Roanoke a town of "crowded cradles and empty graves." The quotation is from an editorial in the Roanoke Times, praising the good work of the Health Department.

Dr. Foster, who is well known in Richmond, is a son of W. W. Foster of this city. He received his training under the direction of Dr. Foster, the death rate for Roanoke during 1912 was 13.37 per thousand, as compared with 15.36 for the preceding year. The report shows also a large decrease in the death rate from contagious and infectious diseases, and a lowering of infant mortality.

"Roanoke has no other investment as good as her Board of Health," says the editorial already referred to. "Not even the investment in the public schools gives returns so prompt and direct. We have visible evidence of what the board of health and its activities and regulations have done in reducing the death rate, reducing the waste of hard-earned money, adding to the comfort and happiness of the people, preventing tears and anguish, destitution and poverty."

According to the annual report of the Roanoke Health Department, prepared under the direction of Dr. Foster, the death rate for Roanoke during 1912
was 13.37 per thousand, as compared
the death rate from contagious and in-
fant mortality.

SPECIAL COURSE AT V. P. I.

Practical Agriculture for County Demonstrators of Virginia.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Blacksburg, Va., January 23.—Thirty-six of the forty-eight men engaged in county demonstration work throughout Virginia are at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute for a six weeks course in practical agriculture. For ten days these men will have the field to themselves, and during February this course will be merged with the farmers' winter course in agriculture.
During the four weeks, the salaries of the demonstrators go on as usual while they are here and they pay their own expenses. Board has been arranged for them in the town at reasonable rates, and they have been located at the two hotels and in private boarding houses. T. O. Sandy, State agent of the farmers' demonstration work in Virginia, will be here for a part of the time, and three Virticut demonstrators are taking the course.

The field of study at V. P. I. for the six weeks' course covers every subject of interest to the farmer, and lectures are given daily on practical subjects, with the demonstrators working in the afternoons. All departments of the college are placed at their disposal, and several of the graduates in agriculture of the institute are among the demonstrators here now.

STONE HIGHWAY TO JOIN CITIES

Organization to Boost Project for Road Between Bristol and Lexington, Ky.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Tenn., January 23.—The Bristol to Lexington Highway Association, to promote the building of a stone highway from Bristol to Lexington, Ky., via Cumberland Gap, was organized this afternoon in a conference held under the auspices of the Bristol Board of Trade. Delegates were here from Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia counties. J. H. Wolfe, of Scott County, Virginia, was elected president, and Jackson Morris, of Kentucky, vice-president. Vice presidents will be named from each county along the route.

Resolutions were adopted looking to aid by counties, with a view to building the necessary links to connect with central Kentucky's systems of turnpikes.
A similar conference will be held tomorrow to organize for the building of a like road between Bristol and Bluefield, W. Va.

Will Be Operated On.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Covington, Va., January 23.—Gar-ret Jeter, a well-known young man of this place, was taken to the hospital at Hinton, W. Va., last night to be operated upon for a severe case of appendicitis. Mr. Jeter is the son of County School Supervisor Professor J. G. Jeter.

CAPTAIN WRIGHT GETS FEDERAL JOB

Confederate Sea Dog Forsakes Briny Deep for Post as Government Gauger.

VISITED QUEEN VICTORIA

Was Member of Athletic Club, and Gave Shakespeare in German Dialect.

Captain Robert Wright, known to Richmonders of two generations as "Captain Bob," sea dog, veteran of the Confederate States Navy, and more recently expert steam engineer in the employ of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, has been appointed distillery gauger by Collector M. K. Lowry, and is now watchdog for Uncle Sam at the Old Dominion Distilling Company, in Chesterfield County.

The appointment took place last Tuesday under the provision authorizing the collector to make emergency appointments whenever the certified civil service list is exhausted. Captain "Bob," as may be inferred from his service in the Confederate Navy, has been a lifelong Democrat and has no political affiliation, therefore, to thank for his appointment.

Collector Lowry said yesterday that a number of the most prominent citizens of Richmond recommended Captain Wright for the position, and that the appointment was made after consultation with Chief Deputy Collector Thomas F. Means, largely on the strength of these recommendations.
Mr. Means, who has direct supervision over distillery reports for this district, said yesterday that those turned in by Captain Wright for the first three days of his service were models of accuracy and completeness.

Fought at Hampton Roads.

Captain Wright is one of the few survivors to-day of the battle in Hampton Roads between the Monitor and the Merrimack. He was on board the Confederate gunboat, Jamestown, at the time of the engagement, and was in the thickest of the fight on the Saturday preceding the Sunday when the iron clads locked horns.

Captain "Bob" displayed proudly on the lapel of his coat yesterday a pin of honor which he said had been pinned there last Friday night by Mrs.
Andrew Jackson Montague. He was one of the large number of war veterans who received this distinction last week
at the time the grandmothers of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

In recent years the captain was best known as engineer for the Old Dominion Steamship Company. He was senior and down the line, he was senior perhaps than any man in Richmond, and knows the crooks and turns of the river like a book. His technical knowledge of steam engines fits him peculiarly for his new position in which this training is of called into demand.

"This kind of work is new to me," said Captain Wright, yesterday afternoon, "but I like it first rate. I have lived most of my life on the water, and I guess it's about time to come back to land."

The Old Dominion Distilling Company, to which Captain Wright has been assigned, is the largest in the district. George L. Snyder, the government storekeeper in charge, and Captain Wright officiate as gauger.

Visited Queen Victoria.

Among the incidents which Captain Wright preserves in lavender is a visit to Queen Victoria, which the old sea-dog paid to the grandmother of the present king was in the heyday of her glory. The particulars of the visit have long since faded from the Captain's memory but he preserves a clear recollection of the host yesterday room at Buckingham Palace and of the queen's graciousness.

There is still another reason for inscribing Captain Wright's name on the roll of those who should not be forgotten. He was a member of Truderman's Athletic Association when that organization, domiciled in Norfolk, was the premier athletic club of the State. That was back in the sixties, said Captain "Bob," but the records made by the members of that club have never since been topped.

Truderman's, it appears, went in for athletics of the higher type. Its greatest single coup, according to the captain, was a performance of Shakespeare, given in the German dialect.
They were athletes then. If Truderman were alive, said Captain "Bob," he could prove it.

Must Provide for Wife.

Joseph F. Toller was arraigned yesterday morning in Police Court on a charge of failing to provide for his wife.

He was ordered by Justice Crutcheff to contribute $5 weekly for twelve months towards her support.

BOWLING

The Ad Men and the Make-Up team of The Times-Dispatch League started off the second half of the season last night at the Newport Alleys in a mix-up. Captain Burks forfeited the three games to the Ad Men. The Ad Men played with Rose and Wells with the handicap of the blind. Captain Goode led for high score and high average. Wells was high score for his team, with Rose high average.
